PART 1 - Task 1: LISTENING COMPREHENSION

Task 1: Andrew Watson

You will hear a talk on the footballer Andrew Watson. Listen carefully to the instructions. For questions 1- 5, complete the sentences using no more than one word or a number for each gap. You will hear the words that you need to use. The answers will occur in the same order as the questions. You will hear the passage twice.

You have 30 seconds to read through all the questions.

The task begins with an example (0).

After you hear the passage for the second time, you have 1 minute to check your answers and transfer them to the Answer Sheet.

- (0) Going through old photos , the speaker realised Queen's Park had had a black player.
- (1) According to the speaker, Watson's dad grew _____ for a living.
- (2) Besides science subjects, Watson also studied _____ at university.
- (3) In Watson's first game for his country, Scotland scored _____ times against England.
- (4) Watson also held the post of _____ at one of the clubs he played for.
- (5) The speaker says the history of black players must be _____ as a result of this research.

This is the end of the listening task.
You may now go on to do the writing task.

PART 1 - Task 2: WRITING

Task 2: Writing

“Some people believe that financial security is the most important aspect of a job, while others think it is preferable to do a job that is enjoyable.”

What do you think about this subject? Develop your ideas in an essay. Make sure you write about both sides of the argument and give your own opinion.

Organise your composition in three to five paragraphs (introduction, development, conclusion). Your essay should consist of approximately 250 words. You may use the blank paper provided for making notes, but make sure that your essay is neatly written in the space provided below.
